Case Management - Administration for Children and Families

Nursing Case Management (NCM) was, when this study began, the only case management journal specifically targeted for professional nurse case managers. The title change to Lippincott's Case Management in 2000 reflects the multidisciplinary nature of case management practice, while the published articles still primarily reflect nursing practice.

Mapping the literature of case management nursing

The purpose of this study was to develop a substantive theory of case management (CM) practice by investigating the experience of nurse case managers caring for Medical Aid enrollees in Korea.
