The success of A Brief History indicates that there is widespread interest in the big questions like: Where did we come from? And why is the universe the way it is? I have taken the opportunity to update the book and include new theoretical and observational results obtained since the book was first published (on April Fools' Day, 1988).

The subtitle of The Cambridge Illustrated History of Warfare will set off Eurocentrism alarms for readers of this journal. Unfortunately, such alarms are not false. The volume editor, Geoffrey Parker, acknowledges the Eurocentrism problem in his preface, but claims that space constraints and the fact of Western dominance in the past two centuries justify a focus on Europe.
